THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

A Practical Session Held in Norfolk Yesterday.

THE BOWDEN-WISE FACTIONS

The Convention Convened a Little After Noon Tuesday and Adjourned at 1:45 A. M. This Morning. Delegates to the National Convention and Electors at Large Chosen—The Bowden Faction Has Things Its Own Way—Mark Hanna and William McKinley Endorsed and Civil Service Condemned.

The streets were thronged all yesterday morning with delegates and alternates to the Republican State Convention, while each incoming train and boat added to the throng. The meetings of old friends were numerous and the various restaurants in the town were kept busy. About 12:30 the crowd drifted toward the Academy of Music, and soon the seats in that edifice began to fill.

DECORATIONS.

The house was handsomely decorated under the supervision of City Chairman Thomas Lowery, and bunting and flags hid balcony and gallery rails, swung from pillar and box fronts and draped the huge proscenium arch and rear of the stage. Depending from the centre of the arch was a flag meeting two that were looped in from the sides, and on this a fine portrait of President McKinley was displayed. At the right and left of the stage were the portraits of Lincoln and Washington, respectively, while as a centerpiece to the footlight decoration of huge palms was a fine portrait of General Mahone.

CARE FOR THE PRESS.

Around the chairman and secretary's desk were a group of small tables with writing materials, etc., for the press. Mr. Lowery having set a fine precedent in this respect for other bodies to follow, and for which the thanks of the press are his.

The divisions of the house for the various districts were marked by silk flags on standards bearing placards announcing to which district they belonged.

THE NAVAL POST BAND, Prof. Jesse Price, leader, was present and discoursed popular selections.

FAVORITES GREETED.

At 1:20 p. m. Hon. Parke Agnew made his appearance on the platform, and the band played "Hail to the Chief" while the audience shouted itself hoarse. The appearance on the platform a few minutes later of Hon. Geo. E. Bowden entered and was greeted with cheers.

At precisely 1:28 the convention was called to order by Chairman Agnew and Rev. Vernon Hanson was called upon, and opened the session with prayer.

ROLL CALL.

Secretary Asa Rogers read the calls of the State and National Committees for the convention. The call of the roll was then proceeded with until Hon. J. B. Stovall moved that the committee on credentials report the roll. This was ruled on and ordered by Mr. D. S. Groner. Several attempts were made to omit the roll call, as wasting time, but two delegates insisted, one from the Fifth and one from the Seventh District. When their names were called the audience applauded.

The names of members of the State Executive Committee met with applause at the mention of each.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

Mr. D. Lawrence Groner was recognized on the question of temporary chairman and said Norfolk would waive the usual custom in such cases and nominate the Hon. Carter M. Louthan, of Madison county. The nomination was seconded and made unanimous by acclamation.

Hon. Parke Agnew in retiring from the State Chairmanship thanked the party for its support and fealty, in a short speech.

Mr. Louthan was then introduced by Mr. D. Lawrence Groner. Mr. Louthan addressed the convention in an eloquent speech, paying hearty tribute to Washington, Lincoln, McKinley and Gen. Mahone, winning great applause.

Hon. T. P. Thorpe moved that all resolutions be referred to the committee on resolutions without debate. Over this a hot contention arose on the ground that the permanent organization not having been formed the action was not in order. The motion was however seconded and carried.

TO APPOINT COMMITTEES.

Col. J. Hampton Hoge moved the appointment of the regular committees, each to consist of one from each Congressional district, save that on credentials, one additional, at large was to be appointed by the chair. This brought many resolutions and counter resolutions, but no action.

Mr. Givens moved the appointment of a committee of ten on plan of organization, one from each district. Gen. Jas. A. Walker explained that this was to ratify or reject a plan of organization decided upon by a committee appointed at the last State Convention.

These motions were then carried, it being understood that only uncontested delegations were entitled to appoint members of the committee.

AN INCIDENT.

During the appointing of the committees by the various delegations Dr. R. A. Wise made his way down the main aisle, and passed upon the stage, where he made inquiry as regards the contested delegations in the Second District, which queries were courteously answered and he departed cheered by the upper gallery.

In a few minutes the Doctor returned and insisted on copying the lists of committees, especially Isle of Wight, which he insisted was a contested delegation.

COMMITTEES.

The convention rapped again to order after all the delegations had handed in their committee appointments, and the secretary proceeded to read the various lists, and Chairman Louthan appointed the chairman of each and announced them as follows:

after all the delegations had handed in their committee appointments, and the secretary proceeded to read the various lists, and Chairman Louthan appointed the chairman of each and announced them as follows:

On Credentials—Chairman, Hon. J. Hampton Hoge, of Roanoke; S. I. Baggett, Jr., W. S. Holland, H. A. Anderson, C. W. Wickes, Floyd Gray, T. C. Green, R. A. Fulwiler, Harnford Anderson, J. L. Crupper, W. A. Jamieson.

On Permanent Organization—Chairman, C. M. Givens, of Winchester; Messrs. M. A. Coles, Ely Darden, Colonel C. Stemp, C. B. Sims, Stith Bolling, L. L. Downing, M. O. Cornett, L. C. Alphin, T. H. Nugent, W. H. Eggborn, A. W. Harris.

On Resolutions—Chairman, S. Brown Allen, of Staunton; Dr. George T. Scarborough, Messrs. E. J. Mulcahy, G. E. Goodell, J. N. Davis, Allen I. Harless, J. T. Todd, Heber Ker, L. A. McLaughlin, Wm. Brown, L. O. Davis.

On Plan of Organization—Chairman, C. M. Givens, of Winchester; Messrs. Joseph T. Tupper, B. Nichols, General J. A. Walker, W. H. Mosby, C. P. Smith, Wm. Lancaster, Joseph P. Brady, A. W. Harris. Member from Eighth district yet to be named.

Hon. S. Brown Allen moved that when the convention reassembled after recess the following be the order of business:

1st. Report of Committee on Permanent Organization.

2d. Report of Committee on Credentials.

3d. Report of the Committee on Resolutions.

4th. Election of State Chairman.

5th. Election of four delegates at large to the National Convention.

6th. Election of four alternates.

7th. Election of two Presidential electors at large.

8th. Report of Committee on Plan of Organization.

The motion was adopted.

The convention then recessed till 8 p. m. to give time for the committees to prepare reports.

NIGHT SESSION.

After 8 o'clock arrived, and during the wait for the appearance of the committee, the Naval Post Band gave a fine concert. General Walker was called to the stage for a speech and responded, pleading for harmony, saying he was tired of strife in the party.

He gave a sketch of his late Congressional contest for a seat in the House as illustrating the faults of the present election laws, and with anecdotes illustrated his points, causing laughter and applause, in the midst of which the chairman entered.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The call to order was at 9:45, given by the chairman.

The committee on credentials reported the roll as presented, with the exception of Prince Edward county, in which the contesting delegation was declared seated.

Hon. Alvah H. Martin entered his protest, which was drowned in cheers. The report was then adopted.

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of Hon. R. T. Thorpe as permanent chairman and Asa Rogers as permanent secretary.

The report was adopted.

On taking the chair Mr. Thorpe delivered an address in which he lauded the present administration and its policies of gold standard, expansion and apparent prosperity. He defended the movements in the Philippines and Porto Rico. It was a campaign stump speech.

RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on resolutions reported through its chairman, Hon. S. Brown Allen, endorsing the administration of President McKinley and advocating his re-election; endorsing the financial bill recently passed, and declaring adherence to a sound money standard; endorsing the Hanna-payne subsidy bill; disapproving the civil service laws, and urging their repeal or amendment; denouncing the acts of the late Legislature in adding to election laws the proposed Constitutional Convention; pledging the efforts of the party to give the electoral vote of Virginia to the nominee of the Republican Convention, etc.

Other resolutions: A resolution denouncing the attack on Chairman Hull, of the Congressional Committee, on the State Committee and the National Committee on the floor of the House of Congress.

Another endorsing Gen. James A. Walker and contending for his right to his seat and trusting that he will get it.

Another that the secretary be requested to certify the list of electors-at-large and electors from the various districts to the electors of the Commonwealth, that their names may be put on the official ballot.

Capt. J. H. Reeves, of Albemarle, offered a resolution endorsing Mark Hanna for chairman of the National Republican Committee and urging his re-election. The applause with which Hanna's name was received was decidedly weak and lacked vigor. He made the point that McKinley's Presidency was due to Mark Hanna. He mentioned Dewey and a few hisses resulted.

Finally a point of order was made that the resolution should be submitted to the proper committee and without debate. Chairman Thorpe ruled the point well taken and the chairman of that committee from his seat reported the resolution, which passed.

AGNEW RE-ELECTED.

The election of a State chairman brought Hon. J. Hampton Hoge to the front, who made a vigorous speech, abounding in word painting. Reaching his main object, he paid a fine tribute to Hon. Parke Agnew for his three years of successful rule.

Mr. Agnew was elected by acclamation.

He responded in a brief speech.

Captain Reeves, of Albemarle, here asked for the privilege of finishing his speech on Mark Hanna.
